

Online Service E-Sign Disclosure and Consent

This disclosure documents your consent to conduct transactions electronically and to electronically receive eDocuments which includes disclosures, statements, and select notices relative to the accounts you are applying to open with us online. This disclosure also describes your rights relative to conducting transactions electronically and to electronically receiving disclosures, statements, and select notices, as well as the consequences of withdrawing your consent. We recommend you print and retain a copy of this disclosure and all the disclosures and agreements related to this transaction.

Please read the information below carefully and thoroughly, and if you agree to these terms and conditions please select the check box next to the "Online Service E-Sign Disclosure and Consent"

Once you consent, you will be able to apply to open accounts online. If you do not consent, you will not be able to apply online. However, regardless of whether you consent, you will still be entitled to apply to open an account through other methods that we permit, such as through the U.S. Mail.

You understand, prior to consenting, that:

1. Your consent applies only to disclosures and notices regarding your accounts, including your periodic account statements;
2. In order to receive eDocuments the Online Banking service must be established for your accounts;
3. As part of your membership, you will automatically receive free electronic account statements. You may, however, elect to switch to paper statements within your Online Banking preferences. A $7.00 fee will be assessed per statement cycle with the election of paper statements;
4. Even after consent, if you want to receive a copy of documents in addition to the electronic documents you can obtain one by calling or writing us at the number or address listed below. Note that a fee of $7.00 may apply if you request a copy of a paper statement and;
5. By consenting to conduct transactions and receive eDocuments you agree to provide us with the information (such as current email address) needed to communicate with you electronically and update us as to any changes in such information. It is your responsibility to provide us with a true, accurate and complete email address, contact, and other information related to this Disclosure and our Account(s), and to maintain and update promptly any changes in this information. You can update information (such as your email address) through Online Banking Options or by calling or writing Clean Energy Credit Union at the number or address listed below.

We reserve the right to provide any disclosures, statements, or notices in writing, rather than electronically. Except as otherwise provided in this or other agreements, by law, or on our website, you cannot give us notices electronically, and all notices from you must be in writing. All communications and disclosures that we provide you in electronic form will be provided either (1) via email, (2) by access to a website that we will designate in an email notice we send to you at the time the information is available.

You have the right to withdraw your consent at any time by logging into Online Banking and changing your eDocument settings from the Document Settings tab or by calling us or writing us at the number or address listed below.

We may treat your provision of an invalid email address or the malfunction of a previously valid email address as a withdrawal of your consent to receive eDocuments. We will not impose any fee to process the withdrawal of your consent to receive eDocuments. However, depending on your account type, your account may be charged a monthly service charge.
